

The book cover features a large, stylized green tree with a brown trunk as the central element. A bright yellow sun is partially hidden behind the tree's foliage in the upper right. The sky is light blue with several fluffy white clouds. Small yellow bees with green dots are scattered throughout the scene. At the bottom, there is a grassy area with four cartoon animals: a blue bear on the left, a small blue bear next to it, a red lion in the center, and a blue bear on the right.
