

Richard Bach Biplane

From the Author of
JONATHAN LIVINGSTON SEAGULL,
ILLUSIONS, and THERE'S NO SUCH PLACE AS FAR AWAY

Copyrighted Material

Resumo de Biplane

In a sublime journey toward understanding time and space, Richard Bach takes flight through American skies in a 1929 biplane. Soaring from New Jersey to California, he learns to navigate by following railroads and highways, masters the dangers of thunderstorms, and tastes the exhilaration of flying above the ground.

Biplane describes a magnificent personal quest.

Acesse aqui a versão completa deste livro