

The background of the entire cover is a dense, textured collage of various hands in shades of brown, tan, and pink. In the center, a single hand is depicted with a realistic human eye in its palm, looking directly at the viewer. The eye has a greenish-yellow iris and dark, well-defined eyelashes. The hand itself is rendered with thick, painterly brushstrokes, giving it a tactile, almost sculptural quality. The overall composition is layered and complex, with many hands reaching towards the center or overlapping each other.

Resumo de By Bizarre Hands

"Lansdale is an immense talent." "Booklist." Small-town juvenile delinquents, Pentecostal snake-handlers, zombies, psychopaths, and assorted freaks populate these witty and gritty tales of horror by a master of the genre.

Joe R. Lansdale's debut collection of short stories was nominated for a Bram Stoker Award for Best Fiction, and two of its tales received Stoker awards."
