

Is love
in the script?

DAZZLED

JANE HARVEY-BERRICK

Resumo de Dazzled

Miles Stephens is a young actor from London. Out of work, unemployable, and fired from his last job, he unexpectedly gets the chance to star in a big-time Hollywood movie.

The film is a great success, propelling him to worldwide fame - but when the dream doesn't match the reality, he turns to Clare, lifelong friend and girl next door.

Clare knows two important facts: when you break chocolate, the calories fall out; and that she's totally in love with clueless Miles. "A flawless, belly laughing romantic comedy. This book will rock your socks off." Smittens Book Blog

Acesse aqui a versão completa deste livro