Loic never wanted love. He views it as an unneeded distraction that always ends in disappointment, causing nothing but pain. Then, he met her. Spoiled but witty and breathtakingly beautiful, London Wright is his undoing.

From the moment he laid eyes on her, he knew his life would never be the same. Though he tries to fight it, he finds himself falling for her. Loic has lived a life full of sorrow, but finding London brings him rare happiness.

Though his feelings for her are strong, is what they have powerful enough to break the cycle of his past? When one is destined for heartbreak and loss, can love really change anything?
