PRE-NUPTIAL AGREEMENT

Whereas, the parties contemplate legal marriage under the laws of the State of _____, and it is their mutual desire to enter into this agreement so that they will continue to own and control their own property, and are getting married because of their love for each other but do not desire that their present respective financial interests be changed by their marriage. Now, therefore, it is agreed as follows:

All property which belongs to each of the above parties shall be, and shall remain, their personal estate, including all interest, rents, and profits which said party, and said property shall remain forever free of claim of either party.

Each party shall have at all times the full right and authority to sell, convey, or dispose of his or her separate property, real or personal, without the consent of the other party, and each would have if not married, to use, sell, or otherwise dispose of his or her separate property, real or personal, without the consent of the other party.

That presently belongs to him or her, and shall remain forever free of claim of either party.

In the event of a separation or divorce, each party shall retain all claims for support or maintenance, and shall not be bound by any provision of this agreement which purports to waive such claims.

[illegible]

3. In the event of a separation or divorce, the property that presently belongs to him or her, other by way of claims for support, shall remain forever free of claim by the other party that presently belongs to him or her.
