

The background of the book cover is a landscape painting. In the foreground, a lush green field stretches across the bottom. A single, large, leafy tree with a thick, gnarled trunk stands on the right side of the field, leaning slightly to the left. In the background, a range of mountains with patches of snow or light-colored rock rises against a sky filled with soft, white clouds. The overall color palette is warm and natural, with greens, browns, and blues.
