Posar desnuda en La Habana

Resumo de Posar Desnuda en la Habana

In 1922 Anais Nin travels to Cuba. The 19-year old is engaged to be married to a rich banker, a union his parents are opposed to. Although only nine entries were actually written in Cuba, after her sojourn in her parents beloved city Anais writes the diary that will make her famous.

Using references from this period, Wendy Guerra imagines what Anais may have felt on arriving to Cuba. Her misgivings on the idea of marriage, her dreams of becoming a writer living in Paris, and her resolve to live guided only by the cadence of her desire."
