

Resumo de Red Light Properties Volume 2: Under Water

The acclaimed creator-owned series by Dan Goldman returns in this second volume following Miami's best husband/wife-owned exorcism-and-real-estate agency! Following a recent victory that quadrupled their business, Cecilia's thrilled to see her company's bottom line finally edge into the black.

But the after-effects of Jude's drug-fueled exorcism workload are already tearing their marriage apart; expecting him to perform four times that will surely strain them to the point of no return.

Navigating tropical days (and scary nights) filled with the ghosts of kidnapped children, swinger pool orgies, and missing fathers, will Red Light Properties find a way to keep both the business and family afloat...

or will their first taste of success sink them for good?
