Resumo de Solved

Finally! We have the answers. Here skilled spinners of mysteries crack classic unsolved crimes. Non-fiction accounts can only speculate as to who was behind the assassination of John F. Kennedy, who was Jack the Ripper, and whether Marilyn Monroe's death was murder or suicide.

This vastly entertaining volume reverses that. With deft plotting and witty writing from the likes of Edgar Award-winning writers, John Lutz and William L. DeAndrea, and bestselling authors, David Hagberg/Sean Flannery (COUNTDOWN) and Rick Hautala (NIGHTSTONE), readers will finally get the satisfaction from actual unsolved cases usually reserved for mystery fiction-the answers.
