The background of the poster is a scene of a city in ruins. In the foreground, a woman with blonde hair, wearing a dark jacket and a backpack, is walking away from the viewer down a debris-strewn street. She is carrying a young child in her arms. The street is littered with rubble, including a flipped car and scattered debris. In the background, several tall city buildings are visible, some of which appear damaged or partially destroyed. The sky is filled with dark, swirling clouds and many small, dark objects, possibly birds or debris, are flying through the air. The overall atmosphere is one of desolation and survival.
